Republican Candidate

Senator Harding, Ohio, Gets the Republican Nomination

Chicago, June 15.—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency last night by the Republican national convention after a deadlock which lasted for nine ballots, and which finally forced out of the running all the original favorites. As his running mate the convention named Calvin Coolidge, of Massachusetts, upholding a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irving L. Lenox, of Wisconsin. The collapse of the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden, and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over ten. Weed heavily when the Harding draft began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders in the early balloting also went steadily down hill. Entering the contest four days ago as a candidate distinctively of the "Dark Horse" class, Senator Harding got only sixty-four votes in the first ballot, and in the second he dropped to 36.

Duty Off Live Stock From United States

Ottawa, June 11.—With the object of restoring Canadian farms which have suffered through excessive drought of the past two years, an order in council has been passed which, in effect, removes the duty from cattle entering the Dominion from the United States from the present time to February 7, 1921. The order was passed several days ago, but has been held up to some extent by the customs authorities, who have had to arrange minor details and issue instructions. Interviewed on the matter tonight, Hon. Dr. Tolmie, minister of agriculture, said the move was solely for the purpose animal, and the government hoped to get the southern portion of Alberta and some parts of Saskatchewan back to normal within the present year. "This year the prospects are excellent for getting the grass on the land for the farmer, yielding him a good profit and prevent the grass from going to waste," Dr. Tolmie said. "The grass prospects in many sections of the west are better than in a decade," he added.

Gompers Supports League of Nations

Montreal, June 15.—Organized labor in the United States was appealed to by President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, here Monday to give its support to the non-partisan political program of the Federation of Labor, and urge upon congress the ratification of the League of Nations. Characterizing the failure of the United States to ratify the covenant as "pitiable," Mr. Gompers, speaking before the annual convention of the federation, said if the question was submitted to the people, without any other entangling problems, I am positive that the people of our country would say by an overwhelming vote that it deserves the League of Nations.

The veteran labor chief expressed the fear that in the coming political campaign the league question will be "submerged" in the number of questions which must attract the attention of the people of the United States. "It is regrettable," he added, "that the question is itself has not had an opportunity presented for the consideration and determination of the people of our country."

PONOKA VICTORIOUS IN LAST WEEK'S GAMES

In the League game played on Wednesday at Ponoka, Innisfail suffered defeat at the hands of the Ponoka ball players, the score standing 10 to 1. The Innisfail team played the game well, although they scored 3 runs on errors. However pitched a steady ball which proved difficult for the Innisfail hitters to touch.

There was a large number of enthusiasts who witnessed the game, and at times excitement ran high.

Thursday, Ponoka journeyed to Innisfail, accompanied by twenty auto loaded with rosters. This was the game, just a wave of excitement from start to finish, and it ended a 10-2-2 according to a decision rendered by umpire Krueger. Innisfail started off well, but Mullins, who was pitching for Ponoka, eventually held them down. The game was a tie at the end of the ninth inning, and it was decided to play another inning.

In the tenth inning Innisfailer batted for Russell, and contrary to the general rule of a pinch hitter he came through with a scintilla of fire. Mullins, following him was A. Mullins with a single which scored two runs. Longman was safe and Headley got a double, Mullins going from second to third in the tenth inning. Longman collided with Russell, the latter which resulted in both men being checked out and a broken jaw.

The game was a washout, and the fans were treated to one of the best games of the season, several of the players showing fine play.

The management of the Ponoka team have entered a protest on the grounds that the umpire did not have authority to call an extra inning game until the full inning was played, and in case the protest is upheld the game will go to Ponoka by the final score of 10 to 2.

Box score —

Umpires—Kramer and Richmond.

Mrs. Porteous visited in town for several months this spring, along with her husband, who cried a number of sales in this district, and made many friends.

The Ponoka hospital has been receiving due recognition in the columns of the Calgary Herald. The articles were written by a special correspondent sent for the purpose, and are highly complimentary throughout, both with regard to the buildings and Dr. Cooke and Smith and their staff. Perhaps it is not generally known that Alberta can boast of one of the best hospitals for insane on the American continent.

The Fertile Valley Municipal District have passed a by-law to prevent non-resident stock running at large within the municipality. This is exceedingly hard lines on the stock. Still there is one refuge left—drive them into town, a few thousand more horses, cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens enjoying the town's free range would help to live up our already lively burg. It will soon be a year since the town dads took a vote on the free range question, but what altho.

Love of The Wild

ARCHIE P. MCKISHINIE

Printed by Special Arrangement with The Alton, Toronto, Ont.

She passed from the room, and Boy sat huddled before the table, his head in his hands, his eyes staring upon the gages hanging on the wall. From the shadows Bob McTavish's fiddle was wailing "Ye Banks and Brars." The fire and the lamp shed a downward gleam and gazed about the room, touching the dried wraith strips and the haunty bloom hanging from the ceiling, glancing from the only green hedge stretched for curing on the walls, hovering above the bundles of poles and piles of traps in the corners of the room. But Boy's mind was not on the trapping activities that soon would bring the furs once more. In his soul he was pondering over the question of this new unrest: a question which must be answered sooner or later by himself.

CHAPTER III.

The father arose and hung the fiddle on its nail.

"Best go to bed, Boy," he yawned, picking up the long clasp-knife with which he had been slapping the ax-handle and putting it in his pocket. When he withdrew his hand it held a letter.

"Well, now, if I didn't forget all about this letter, I'd be ashamed of myself."

"You must read it to me this afternoon. That man Watson, the land-agent at Bridgeway, gave it to me to give you."

"You must read it to me, and see what he wants."

Boy took the letter and broke it open with nervous fingers.

"Watson says I'll have to go to see you tomorrow, Dad. Seems like he wants to get hold of this place."

"By hickory!"

"What do you think of that?"

"What do I think? It's just what I expected, that's all."

Boy lifted the window and looked out. The moon was flooding the outer world with a soft radiance. The bark of a wolf came faintly in his ears from the back ridges. Old Joe lay stretched in the moonlight beside the ash-leaved. As Boy watched him the dog arose, shook himself happily, turned three times and lay down again. An owl hooted merrily from a neighboring thicket, and the faintest of the four stilled and nestled down again, heads beneath wings. Boy came back and stood beside his father.

"I guess maybe I'm asleep, Dad," he said slowly. "It isn't for me to say what I think, although it's mighty good of you to ask. This place ain't mine, it's yours. You've worked hard and long to clear what you have cleared here, and that's a great deal more than any of the other Bushwhackers have done. I haven't been anything of a help to you much, 'Course I could be from now on. I'm a man grown, nearly as grown as the trapline I ever I might pick in and help you with the leggin'."

The father laid his lips down on the table and combed his long beard with his fingers.

"Boy," he said, "every hanged sick of timber and every foot of this four hundred acres of bushland is as much yours as mine, and you know it. I ain't wantin' to clear the land any more than the rest of the Bushwhacker are. What do I want with the leggin' Gosh says alive, I'd be no lone some for the woods that I could not live. I can't sleep a wink, I don't hear the trees available and the twigs poundin' the roof nights. And ain't I tolerably happy, all of us together here, even if the little me is party rick and it's mighty hard not to be able to help her! And ain't we happy and prairie! That ain't get to be her old self once more, here where the woods breathes its own medicine. And don't we know them prairie will be answered?"

He bent over and laid his big hand on the bed's shoulder.

"Then we'll naturally put in some great nights, crackin' hickory-nuts by the fire and playin' the fiddle. Why I wouldn't part with one acre of this piece of bush for all the cleared land in western Ontario!"

Boy stooped and picked up the letter.

"Watson writes that he has a cultivated farm near Clearview that he'll swap for this of ours," he said.

"Where's Clearview, Dad?"

"Why, it's a strip of sandy loam between Bridgeway and Lake Erie. It's to light even to grow Canadiana. Well, I guess maybe Watson would be willing to swap that sand for our place. I don't like that man Watson. I can't say why, unless it's on account of some things I've heard of him and that other fellow Smythe, who's a partner of his in some way."

"You mean the Smythe who keeps the store at Bridgeway?"

"The same. You know him pretty well, I guess. He cheated you out of a dozen musk-lives, didn't he?"

"He tried to," answered Boy with a smile.

"Mr. Watson? Well, that we're not wantin' to trade farms," affirmed the father.

"There's Gosh," suggested the Boy. "It's his where there was a good school."

The man laughed.

"Why, he couldn't drag his fiddle away from this. She loves it—loves every nook and corner of it."

"She signs down," he agreed. "She sure does."

The father brought a white board from the window and laid it on the bed, glancing over the morning furs-making. This door, he gathered them together with a stockinged foot and glancing over and again at the boy, who had resumed his old attitude.

"Watson and Smythe want to get hold of our country for some reason," said the father. "And I reckon I'll pretty easy to guess who they're trying to get it for. It's that big land owner, Colonel Habbitt, who has his mill on Lee Creek. I hear that Col. Habbitt wants that he'll own every strip of timber in Bushwhacker Prairie."

"That's what troubles me," returned Boy. "You know what them rich farmers are like. They have always got hold of everything they want, and now this one is going to try to get our place. But we ain't going to let him. We'll fight him off. We'll fight him off, and he'll try to take it."

"Hush, Boy! There's no reason to take on this way. What makes you think he'll try to drive us?"

Mr. McTavish stood up straight. Something of the boy's ardor had entered into him for an instant.

"You are, Dad, we're poor. That is, we have no ready money, though we have everything we need for comfort. They were lak'in' in that something called rapshaws among businessmen. We've got to get it, and we've got to get it the other wild things that creep farther back into the woods before we can't understand. We don't know their ways. I tell you, Watson will steal this bushland from us, and he's going to. It's valuable. There's enough walnut and ash, and the highest quality of timber, and the place to make us rich — rich, I'd say, that that, Dad? And ain't I rich, and my agents trying to get every other bushwhacker under their thumbs same as they're tryin' to get us? But, Dad, listen—there's not a cent of money, they've got to get us, by God, they've got to get us."

The lad was trembling and his face was white and perspiring.

Fruit Prospects Promising

Indications For the Fruit Crop in B. C. Could Not Be Braten

Prospects are bright this season for a heavy fruit crop, states a report from Mission, B. C., despite the late spring opening prevalent throughout the west. Bumper crops of raspberries especially are expected. Strawberry picking will be in full swing by the middle of this month from all indications, and raspberries and loganberries will engage all the energies of the pickers about a month later, with black currents demanding attention towards the end of July.

Five hundred strawberry pickers will probably be required by the middle of this month in the Mission district, while the raspberry and loganberry crops will provide employment for thousands of pickers.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JUNE 20

THE LORD OUR SHEPHERD

This is a lesson so simple that a child of four years can understand it. The teacher's work will be mainly to point out the riches of its content, not to explain difficulties. The position of the Psalm determines its value. It is preceded by the psalm of the Cross. Only those who are under the power of the Cross can claim its promise. There are no given promises to those who have not been Christ on the cross.

The relationship of the Lord to his children is set forth in the psalm as:

1. The Divine Shepherd (vs. 1-4).

2. The Shepherd and his flock (vs. 5-7).

3. The green pastures (vs. 1-2).

4. The green pastures (vs. 1-2).

Labor Leader Says Republican Platform Is An Outrage

Mayrwell. — The Republican platform adopted in Chicago is declared "an outrage and an affront to the working people" and "a document with which the laboring men and women of this country should not be associated," says Matthew Wolf, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, in a statement made here.

The platform, Mr. Wolf asserts, "is a smoke screen to deceive the people," but it now remains to be seen whether the people can be deceived by an effort so bold and brazen.

"It provides for compulsory labor in all government and semi-government services," continued the statement, "but it is profoundly and impressively silent on the great injunctive issue and gives what I take to be a pledge that the United States will police Mexico for the benefit of organized oil, mineral and mining interests. The platform is an outrage and an affront to the working people and a cold, brutal insult to the great masses."

"The platform promises no relief from the profiteers and has the effrontery to propose continued submission to heartless exploitation and greed. The American people are determined to find relief from profiteering. Nothing so infinitely affects them in their daily lives. On this point the platform is disavowed of the welfare of the people. We are forced to the conclusion that the republican party proposes to protect it."

Mr. Wolf has just returned here from Chicago, where he, with President Goings, of the Federation, presented to the Republican platform committee labor's demands.

Von Kluck Leaves Fatherland

Finda That Life in Germany is Intolerable and Seeks New Home

Geneva. — Field Marshal Alexander H. E. Von Kluck, who commanded the right wing of the German army in its advance on Paris in 1914, has arrived with his family at Arosa, 14 miles northeast of Bern. He declared today that life had become insupportable in Germany and said he intended to buy a farm and live in Switzerland henceforth.

Field Marshal Von Kluck was one of the Germans demanded for trial by the allied governments. He was accused of the assassination of British civilians at Senlis and the massacre of civilians at Aveschoot.

Strikers Return Work

Port Arthur. — The Port Arthur shipbuilding company plant is again operating in all departments after a strike which lasted a little more than three weeks. Five hundred men of the former force of one thousand have gone back to work on the old scale and working conditions. All unions are represented in those who have reported for work. It is expected that considerably more of those who have been on strike will return.

American Not an Alien in Canada

Winning. — An American citizen is not an "alien" in Canada, according to a ruling made by Magistrate Sir Hugh John Macdonald, in the city police court. The ruling was made on the suggestion of the crown prosecutor in dismissing a charge against Roy H. Lago, of Sioux Falls, S. D., of being an alien in violation of a law of the United States.

Italian Cabinet Resigns

Rome. — Premier Nitti announced in the chamber of deputies that the cabinet had resigned.

Senate Reports That H. B. Road Is Quite Feasible

Ottawa. — That the route to the Hudson Bay is feasible, that valuable fish and marine animals abound in the bay and strait, and that consideration should be given the matter of making Churchill, instead of Nelson, the terminus of the road, are the main features of the report of the special committee of the senate appointed to investigate the Hudson Bay route.

The committee, which has held 15 meetings extended over a long period, heard 21 witnesses, making the "long haul."

That the Hudson Bay route is feasible and will be probably in time profitable.

2.—That under present conditions the season of navigation would last at least four months, and may be by improvements and aid to navigation, considerably increased.

3.—That in the opinion of the committee sufficient care was not taken in the selection of Nelson as the ter-

Crisis in Newspaper Situation

Canadian Publishers Unable to Secure Supplies, While Newspaper Goes to U.S.

Ottawa.—While the stocks of Canadian newspaper companies are soaring as much as ten points a day, reflecting the unprecedented prosperity of the Canadian newspaper industry, a group of Canadian publishers are still in Ottawa struggling to prevent the publication of their newspaper.

The publishers are unable to secure supplies in a country that is exporting six times as much newspaper as it requires for domestic consumption. The publishers are being diverted to the United States. It represents an addition of only one percent to the 650,000 tons now being exported annually to that country, but it is the lifeblood of the Canadian daily newspaper industry.

No question of prices is involved as the Canadian publishers are quite willing to pay the current market price for paper for the foreign countries.

The present crisis has been precipitated by the actions of a very small minority among the newspaper manufacturers of Canada. The others are continuing, without question, the supplies of their Canadian customers, but are unable or unwilling to take care of other Canadian daily newspaper publishers whose supplies have been cut off.

An impasse has been reached and apparently nothing short of legislation conserving the domestic requirements will prevent the extinction of the daily newspapers of Canada.

To Mark Boundary Line

Ottawa.—The appointment is gazetted this week of J. J. McArthur, D.S., of Ottawa, to be a commissioner to define and mark the boundary line between the U. S. of America and the Dominion of Canada with the exception of that portion of it extending from the forty-fifth parallel of north latitude through the St. Lawrence River, the Great Lakes and connecting waterways to the mouth of the Pigeon River.

Coal Miners Get Increase

Contract Men Are Granted Advance Of Seven Per Cent Over U. S. Award

Calgary.—An agreement was concluded by the coal operators of Alberta and the representatives of the U.M.W. of A., whereby a 27 percent increase will be given to all day men over the October scale, to be retroactive to April 1. This increase includes a preliminary 14 percent increase given last January. The contract men will get 25 cents a ton increase and 27 percent increase on the war bonus of 92 cents. This is seven percent more than has been awarded in the United States contract men.

The agreement is to be submitted to a vote of the miners.

Earthquakes in Italy

London.—Considerable damage has been done in Tuscany by earth shocks according to a General News despatch from Florence. The shocks are of a preliminary 14 percent increase given last January. The contract men will get 25 cents a ton increase and 27 percent increase on the war bonus of 92 cents. This is seven percent more than has been awarded in the United States contract men.

A Central News despatch on June 5 reported two violent earthquake shocks at Ferrara, northeastern Italy.

The agreement is to be submitted to a vote of the miners.

Increased Postage For Newspapers

It Will Also Cost Ten Cents Now to Register A Letter

Ottawa.—Amendments to the post act, introduced in the house by the government, provide for an increase in the registration fee on letters and other matter passing through the mails, from 5 to 10 cents. The rate of postage on newspapers and periodicals printed and published in Canada, and issued at intervals of less than one month, is increased from 10 to 20 per cent or fraction thereof.

Newspapers and periodicals which are to be transmitted for a distance of more than forty miles, or the publication of which is of greater frequency than once a week, shall be subject to postage at the rate of 10 per cent or fraction thereof for the following years. This postage is to be affixed by stamp or as the postmaster-generals may decide.

Echo of DeForge Case

Manitoba Appeal Court Changes A Man's Murder Charge To That Of Murder

Winnipeg.—One of the most remarkable appeals ever heard in Canada was ended when the Manitoba Court of Appeals delivered judgment in which W. H. Enich, Harold Burdick and Jack Clements were found to be guilty of murder in connection with the killing last October of W. J. DeForge. The three accused were charged with the murder of DeForge, a well-known farmer, who was killed on the morning of October 10, 1914, near the town of DeForge, in the province of Manitoba.

The crown appealed the case. They asked the court to change the charge from murder to manslaughter, and to impose a fine of $1000 and imprisonment for one year.

Modify Naturalization Laws

Franchise Act Amendment Expected Shortly in the House

Ottawa.—The minister of justice will shortly introduce a bill in the house to amend the naturalization act. The chief provision of the bill, it is understood, will deal with the ten-year clause adopted in the act of 1907, which has caused so much controversy. Under the clause, persons of alien enemy birth are barred from obtaining a naturalization certificate for ten years from the declaration of peace.

It is recognized that the clause has operated as a hardship in the case of certain residents in Canada, born in Germany or Austria, against whom there is no complaint. The bill, it is said, will make modification in the clause, in that it will give credit to the secretary of state to grant naturalization certificates to meritorious cases where the applicant has already been resident in Canada for ten years or more.

Curtis May Cause to Build Aeroplanes in United States

New York.—The Curtis Aeroplane and Motor Corporation, claiming three-fourths of the entire American aircraft industry, announced here that it will abandon the manufacture of commercial planes because of failure of congress to protect the market from dumping of British machines.

Winnipeg Tailors Complain of Tax

Telegram is Sent to Minister of Finance Declaring Situation Extremely Bad

Winnipeg.—That merchant tailors in Winnipeg are reducing staffs, that they are closing their shops, and that a serious situation exists in the trade in the city in consequence of the luxury taxes, is the gist of a wire sent to Sir Henry Drayton, minister of finance, from a largely attended meeting of the merchant tailors' branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Winnipeg.

Crerar Amendment On Luxury Tax Suffered Defeat

Can Finance Wheat Crop

Bankers Can Cope With All Credit Demands Expected

Toronto.—Under the caption "Bankers can cope with the situation," the Globe financial editor says: "A reassuring view of the situation in Canada was taken by the members of the executive of the Canadian Bankers' Association, who have been in session in Toronto this week. Looking over the field and appreciating the difficulties of the credit situation, the view as expressed by a prominent banker was that they will be 'able to cope with the situation.' This is interpreted to mean that existing and anticipated demand for credit can be met with and that there should be no difficulty in financing the wheat crop, even should it be an unusually large one."

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

No picture in recent years has aroused more genuine enthusiasm in its preliminary showings than George Lester Taylor's picture, "The Miracle Man." A Paramount-Artist picture. Unbiased critics have hailed it as a screen masterpiece and one of the really great motion pictures of modern times. Telling a stupendous story of universal appeal, it is one of those rare products of the screen that hold an audience spellbound from start to finish. Showing at the Empress, Ponoka, June 10 and 12.

Winnipeg, June 15—A special dispatch to the Manitoba Free Press from Lethbridge says the heavy windstorm of last Tuesday did considerable damage, according to full estimates now possible from Southern Alberta. From Brockton on the west to Rollton on the northeast there will be crop losses of from 20 to 75 per cent. As a remedy some of the authorities are now suggesting irrigation and seeding winter rye to help out.

HOW BIG A THING IS CHIROPRACTIC?

Chiropractic comes from the field of medicine. For the thousand years the best minds of the medical profession have searched the heavens and the earth trying to find the cause of disease, which Chiropractic calls a "misalignment of the body." Against the wonderful confidence of the American Medical Association, with its endorsement of medicine, Chiropractic has gained the confidence of the general public. Chiropractic has nothing to do with the common "back" or "neck" pain, and has nothing to do with those upon whom all other methods have failed.

To succeed where others fail is the supreme test, and unless Chiropractic can do this it has no reason for its existence.

Honest and open-minded members of other health professions acknowledge its merits, while progressive and forward-looking doctors study it and are now in ever increasing numbers to accept it and abandon their former methods.

Unfortunately it has also attracted to itself a few "pretenders" who find the word Chiropractic the most profitable because they can make it their business to do so.

TIRE ECONOMY

The cotton fabric in the casing of the tire is the principal factor in present tire wearing. The tread protects this fabric against damage from water and dirt. When the tread is cut and punctured in various places, water enters the casing, softens the fabric, and causes the tire to wear. When you put in a known patch the fabric is in taking water and dirt and is wearing your tire and also making your tire and casing.

We value a rubber tire for its strength and its ability to hold a weak tire if it has a bull dog grip. You cannot put it in a groove. This strengthens your tire fifty per cent.

What The B.L.K. Milker Does

It has been demonstrated by hundreds of dairymen that the B.L.K. Milker will milk thoroughly. It means relief from the "all the year round" drooping of hand milking, freedom from the trouble and expense of cow-lactated help, for a larger herd can be milked with less labor and expense. The great advantage of B.L.K. Machine milking over hand milking is the big saving every year in actual cash. When you add the other advantages you cannot but admit that milking by the B.L.K. method has got to be the best milking by a mile.
